

SPRINKLER CLAMP

DESCRIPTION

The multifunctional Sprinkler clamps of PS are designed to make installation for electricity, plumbing, fire fighting systems, etc. Its unique design helps reduce installation times by making construction processes more efficient.

CHARACTERISTICS

Its unique design allows flexibility and versatility for installers, reducing installation costs on site. They are available in several configurations for PVC pipes, EMT, RIDGID, etc. They are available in electro-galvanized steel and 304 stainless steel

VARIETY OF MODELS

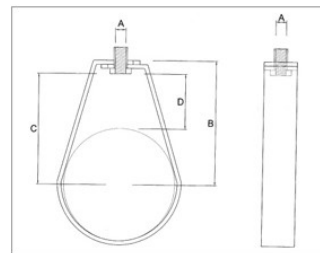

Available in a variety types which fit to different applications, clamps with neoprene insulation reduce vibration in the pipes, they are also used as electric current isolators; the clamps with adjustment screw allow the installation of different pipe configurations.

Galvanized sprinkler clamp

Sprinkler Clamp with neoprene insulation

Sprinkler clamp draw

INDUSTRIES COMMONLY SERVED

- Food & Beverage Production & Distribution
- Water & Wastewater Treatment
- Chemical Plants
- Petrochemical Operations
- Marine & Coastal Facilities

FEATURES

- Manufactured in type 304 stainless steel and galvanized to meet any stringent sanitary condition.
- Polished to increase corrosion resistance and aesthetic appearance.
- Designed for use with thread rods.
- Type 304 stainless steel nut & bolt included